

Envision Illinois invites
Self-Advocates and Disability Service Providers to learn about the

Peer to Peer:
Bridging the Gap
Through Self-Advocacy
Curriculum

Thursday, December 8, 2022
10 – 11am Central Time

The Peer to Peer: Bridging the Gap through Self-Advocacy curriculum was designed to provide self-advocates with the information and tools needed to support survivors and to act as a bridge between the survivor and the programs in the community designed to serve them. Self-advocates will learn peer support skills and information through in person learning labs and online virtual tracks:

- Basic (4 classes)
- Domestic Violence (3 classes)
- Sexual Assault (3 classes)
- Justice (3 classes)

Leslie Myers, one of the Peer to Peer authors, will talk about the curriculum and how it is designed for interactivity, both online and in person. Ask questions, share comments, and if you want to participate in the FREE Peer to Peer curriculum, we will help you sign up and get the journey started! Check out the Peer to Peer: Bridging the Gap through Self-Advocacy curriculum here.
