

WE ARE PARENTS

"~ A webinar series for parents and health & human service providers"

Attachment?

Why do I need to know about attachment?

Friday, January 20, 2023
Noon-12:50pm

Attachment Theory Basics: Join us in learning the basics of attachment theory. You can use it to raise your child with a sense of emotional security and build a stronger relationship with your child. You'll learn more about how to strengthen your attachment with your child in safe and healthy ways that fit into everyday interactions.

What parents and caregivers can do to help themselves and their kids in the aftermath of the pandemic...

This is a series of webinars that will help us recognize how our relationships have been affected by the pandemic and how we can help our children be stronger as we move into the post-pandemic world.
